MADISON - As you plan your coverage of Trump's rally in Milwaukee tomorrow, I wanted to share some key questions that he needs to answer. If you're interested in speaking to a Wisconsinite who has been personally hurt by Trump's policies, please let me know.

1.

What will Trump say to the 153,000 Wisconsinites who would lose coverage if his effort to overturn the ACA is successful, unleashing "chaos" in our health care system?

2.

Who will protect Wisconsin's seniors who depend on Medicare when his proposed budget cuts \$845 billion from the program, and his policy agenda could jeopardize their access to free preventative care?

1.

Wisconsin leads the nation in farm bankruptcies and we've lost more than 1,800 dairy farms since Trump took office. Will the president allow this farm crisis to continue into his final year in office?

1.

Trump promised 13,000 jobs when he struck a deal to pay Foxconn more than $4 billion in taxpayer subsidies to build a plant, even saying Foxconn would be the "eighth wonder of the world." To date, however, this largely hasn't happened. Will Trump admit he let Wisconsin down, leaving many communities high and dry?

1.

Trump's tax law raised working Wisconsinites' annual health care premiums by an estimated \$2,270 in 2019. Will he keep increasing health care costs for working families in order to give tax cuts to his billionaire friends?

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you want to know more about how Trump's policies are causing working families in Wisconsin to struggle.
