Disaster is the result of Donald Trump's flagrant incompetence.

WASHINGTON, DC - DNC Chair Tom Perez released the following statement after the United States surpassed 100,000 deaths from the COVID-19 pandemic:

“It is a dark day in America. 100,000 Americans have lost their lives. 100,000. It didn't have to be this way. Instead of addressing this crisis, Trump spent his weekend golfing. And just last week, he said the fact that the U.S. has the highest number of confirmed COVID-19 cases in the world is a ‘badge of honor.’ But there is no honor in today's numbers. They are a badge of shame that Trump will wear for the rest of his dwindling days in the Oval Office.

As the United States reaches 100,000 COVID-19 deaths, the DNC is calling on President Trump to take immediate action to stop the spread of the virus. The DNC is also calling on Congress to pass the CARES Act, which will provide financial relief to Americans who are struggling due to the economic impact of the pandemic.
