Paul Ryan's murderous health care plan, Trump's plan to cut aid to college students, Tony Evers and more...

STATEWIDE - The panel reviews the huge snow-covered protest of Paul Ryan's murderous health care plan that took place this week outside Paul Ryan's Racine office. Ryan has now become the central character in an plot to take take health care away from 24 million Americans.

We also welcome economics professor Dr. Michael Rosen, president of AFT Local 212, to discuss Trump's plan to cut aid to college students.

Robert interviews Tony Evers, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, about his important upcoming April 4th general election against ethically challenged conservative Lowell Holtz. Matt talks with Wisconsin Working Families executive director Marina Dimitrijevic about the effort elect pro-public education school board members in Milwaukee on April 4th.
